How to Qualify

Players must be an ECF silver member or above for U18 and lower age groups, but a gold member or above for the U20 age group.

You can qualify for the 2023 EJCOA Youth Championships National Finals in one of three ways:

By winning your age section in a Regional Final of the EJCOA Youth Championships (one boy and one girl qualify from Under 8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20 age groups).

1) By rating. Any player with a published current minimum ECF or FIDE standard play rating (as below) is entitled to enter the EJCOA National Youth Championships:

Under 8: 800

Under 10: 1000

Under 12: 1200

Under 14: 1400

Under 16: 1600

Under 18: 1700

Under 20: 1800

1) Wild Card entries. These players will be invited by the EJCOA Selection Committee, based on a combination of:

A) Performance in an EJCOA Youth Championships Regional Final.

B) Performance in other recent events.

Please note that all entries will be accepted on a first come, first served basis. Capacity at Nottingham High School is limited to 150 players.

If you would like to play in the National Finals but do not currently have a place under the first two criteria, please apply for a Wild Card entry to the EJCOA Youth Championships National Finals organiser, Tim Wall, at: timpeterwall@gmail.com

Successful Wild Card applicants will be notified by email.

You may then pay the entry fee online here:

The English Junior Coaches and Organisers Association

EJCOA (<https://ejcoa.org.uk>) is a national non-profit organisation of more than 350 chess coaches and junior organisers dedicated to the promotion and organisation of chess events for young people and the training of chess coaches. EJCOA runs regular in-person and online tournaments for young players, and training events for coaches. We work closely with the English Chess Federation, the FIDE Trainers Commission and the European Chess Union.

For more information or to join EJCOA as a coach or junior organiser, please contact our National Chair, Rob Willmoth, on: rob@coachingservices.net

National Affiliation

In accordance with ECF guidelines, players affiliated to Russia or Belarus are required to change their affiliation to 'FIDE' before entering the EJCOA Youth Championships National Finals. The procedure for playing under the FIDE flag has been simplified. Instructions can be viewed here: <https://www.fide.com/news/1758>)
